“Verily, I say unto you today, you will be with Me in Paradise” (Luke 23:43). But, dear reader, it’s not a “come as you are” party. Unless you are willing to be transformed, you will not enter.

“Jesus answered, ‘Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Holy Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God’” (John 3:5).

Dedication

Dear reader, State of the Aart (S.O.T.A.) was written for YOU concerning your life here on earth, which will affect the outcome of your eternal destiny. This book and the knowledge herein is dedicated to all members of the human race who have not yet entered a personal relationship with Yahweh, God, our Father, and our Creator who, by His power and authority and the sacrifice made by His Son Jesus, is making available the opportunity for everyone alive to receive eternal life in His world, starting here and now as equals because of the principle of redemption.

“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross” (Philippians 2:5-8). Was resurrected and is alive forever more.

Dear reader, placed throughout State of the Aart are definitions of words and phrases that are not found in standard dictionaries, but which are nonetheless consistent with the mind of God. We have also used the King James Version Bible for the scriptures written herein.

(Definition): The Bible – Why the Bible? Because it’s the only book in existence that reveals the actual Truth and will of God; that we have been offered the gracious invitation to become members of His family by inheritance, through adoption by simply receiving Jesus, the Christ, by His Holy Spirit, allowing us to have eternal life in His kingdom. Plus, it is an accurate chronicle of our existence since the beginning. The Bible offers a truthful account, that a certain evil person does not want you to understand or know! This liar has the ability to substitute it with a multitude of alternate partial truths and copious amounts of false information, creating the great lie, concerning the entire human race. This lie has been spread throughout all aspects of humanity. From the beginning, through the tribal traditions right up until now, into the world’s political, religious, educational and economical systems in which we are all entangled.

I NEVER KNEW

I never knew I was in need of a Saviour until I got saved.

I never knew I was in need of a Deliverer until I got set free.

I never knew I was in need of His love until I saw the Son.

I never experienced any of these,
until we became one!

~ Wulph

Introduction

There is no greater power or authority than the will of God, and within His will is what is known as the power of the spoken word. All things in existence are manifested and sustained by this power; therefore, there are no coincidences with the will of God. All knowledge between the MOST HIGH GOD and His earthly human creation, through times and seasons has been revealed on a need to know basis, and the time is now for you to know what is going to happen; why; and what happened before man came into being, (you man being) (human being.) God has a great way with words doesn't he!

This is an extended introduction from the first version printed, we cannot finish writing the second volume as the Lord speaking with us is saying that there is not enough time left to produce a second volume before Maitreya the antichrist is made visible to the entire world on all the media outlets: yes all of them. The foolish people of the world are saying that he is the Christ the anointed one of God. He can't come in the name of Jesus, but he will be raised up by the unsaved population (90%) as the Christ the world teacher, along with a few that he will call "masters of wisdom".

Therefore, we are incorporating Volume Two in the partial rewrite of Volume One of S.O.T.A. because of the very short time factor. The new version is labeled "BEYOND THE BIBLE" The original Volume One is what you are reading, but as we insert new knowledge because of your need to know, it will be identified this way.

INSERT - God is a person of the HIGHEST AUTHORITY, We humans came into existence by His will and ability to create all things. Man and womb man, came onto the scene in the beginning after God put the universe in motion and made our earth spin and rotate around the sun creating time and space for us, because in His world His authority and character was challenged, and he had to do something about it, as there can be no evil in paradise. Reader take note here: This conflict in heaven is the reason why you are here and I as well. Through the knowledge in this book we will be putting the pieces of the big picture in place for all to see.

You, dear reader, are presently reading S.O.T.A.—“State of the Aart” knowledge. This knowledge is hope for every living soul in these precarious times, as presently there is a pandemic worldwide because of the coronavirus Hoax but there are greater problems that are about to confront the human race.

Especially now, for in these last days, our Father, Creator, desires that each person have a personal relationship with Him, without organized religions or rituals—we have too many demanding traditions keeping us separated from Him. These practices need to be scrutinized, simply because they are impeding our relationship with the Most High. He wants to be our all-in-all. God says, “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts” (Isaiah 55:8-9).

Therefore, dear reader, for us to know God’s mind we need to receive a different understanding, an undefiled understanding, which will enable us to receive the truth. This transformation includes deliverance from our lower selves which are totally influenced by the former number one angel known as Lucifer now Cast out of heaven down to us here on earth. He is now known as Satan the devil, and God says that we belong to him and his army of demons. WE NEED DELIVERENCE, SAVED FROM HIS POSSESSION.

We that committeth sin are of the devil (1 John 3: 8)

S.O.T.A. is a testimony of this transformation in Aart’s life and many others, and now you, dear reader, are about to receive great gifts from God, power and authority in the form of a renewed mind and a regenerated spirit by God’s Holy Spirit, which can only be dispensed by Him. (We refer to you as “dear reader” because you will come to know how precious you are to our Father—you are called and chosen.)

The declaration “All Are Redeemed Today” is your insurance, dear reader, of eternal life in the Kingdom of God.

State-of-the-Aart knowledge will help guide you with this amazing story!

Foreword and Four Words

The foreword is usually written by someone of importance other than the author endorsing the writing, but this book is different—and it doesn't get any more forward than this. The Most High God Himself is endorsing S.O.T.A. (State of the Aart) because of His involvement in it, which is about His love for you and His concern for your personal eligibility to enter into His world eternally.

Within S.O.T.A. we will also reveal the depth of meaning involving four, small, two-letter words that are in the New Testament of the Bible, but which are easily overlooked or not even noticed. However, the incorporation of the meanings of these four little words in your life (and ours) will determine and establish this eligibility and the outcome of our human existence. When you read about these four, specific words, the Spirit of God will cause you to identify with them on a very personal level, dear reader. The mystery of these words will be revealed as you continue to read this book, and they are IF, AS, IT, and IN.

As you read State of the Aart, God is going to get very personal with you. “State of the art” with one “A” means the best for the time. “State of the Aart,” however, is the best, personable knowledge you can receive not only for now but forever—you'll understand why later, as this book explains who you are today and who you possibly will be for all eternity.

“This is an invitation, and it could be the last invitation that you might very well receive—other than that found through reading the Bible, which is essential in knowing God's mind (and in knowing our Father's mind, He will reveal who we really are, where we came from, where we are going, who is in control, and that His authority will be given to those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God).

“But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name” (John 1:12).

However, this invitation has nothing to do with religion: it has to do with your personal relationship with the Creator of all things and His eternal plans for you. He is our father our daddy our papa His son Jesus is our older brother,

INSERT - And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your father, which is in heaven. Matthew 23: 9. So why do catholic priests want you to address them as father. It's a psychological trick to lead people into believing that these men are warm fuzzy members of the church that you and you children can trust. Big deception. Fact: 9% of all catholic priests are proven pedophiles. Vicar; dear reader, means substitute, replacement; they want to be high guys in your eyes, but the truth be known the entire system known as Catholicism is designed to keep your attention preoccupied with their labels, rituals, teachings, ordinances, that you are unable to have that beautiful personal relationship with YAHWEH

Our father in heaven Holy is thy name Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven., That would be the real Bible of course. So dear readers what game is the Vatican playing at? Did you know that baby baptism is not recognized by God. Why do you think Jesus received the Holy Spirit as an adult? We will explain later.

(John 14: 26 The comforter, which is the HOLY GHOST Whom the father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said unto you.) (Not the Catholic or Vatican corporation)

The knowledge of good and evil comes from Satan, the human transgression against God was this; weather they knew it or not Eve and Adam forfeited their spiritual knowledge and fellowship, which is the mind of God Himself for the pursuit of the knowledge Satan provides ; good and evil comes from the same tree; same root. So, believe it or not, if a person is exercising the knowledge that is of the devil then the unregenerated human mind belongs to him as well.

In reading this book, you will receive an invitation into a spiritual life that is unattainable by any human being without Yahweh, who is our Creator. We, as limited beings caged in a physical body and being gifted with a soul and human spirit, have not the capability of escalating our identities into a permanent, spiritual condition that is allowed to coexist with our Creator. We are stuck in this time continuum with only a capability of experiencing a glimpse of God's world; however, God and His plan that have been a mystery; is now being revealed to all.

Not only that, but He is also giving each human the opportunity to become a vessel in this world today for Him, to dispense His Spirit amongst one another. All of creation is groaning to be delivered!

(Definition): Truth – undefiled understanding.

Who God Is

God is Elohim, Yahweh, Jehovah, the great I Am; Jesus, Yeshua, Emmanuel, Lord of Lords and King of Kings; and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter: the all-inclusive triune Godhead, which cannot be divided or separated. Who always was and who created all things.

We cannot adequately say who God is as an individual being, but if we did try and explain who God, the all-in-all Creator is with our limited, puny understanding it may go something like this. Put everything in existence in a small container, and we mean everything—every atom, every proton neutron, electron, and everything that exists from the smallest elements to the largest elements in all the universes, in all the dimensions, and with all the knowledge that exists (intellectual, spiritual, and that which involves the physical); every factor known about every human, animal, plant, stone, gas, and particle, and even every emotion and thought each person has or will have within every moment of time—and then saturate that container in the understanding of pure agape love (which is unconditional love) and put it in the hand of the Most High Creator . . . then that may slightly describe who God is as an individual being with all power and authority over all things.

This greatest of beings has come to create you and I, and He is offering each and every one of us a place with Him in His eternal realm. His authority is His Word, His Word represents His will, and His will is that none of us should be lost, that all be redeemed, and that we ultimately become like He is. Please, dear reader, read on, as you are a member included in His plan.

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” (Ephesians 4:24).

“So when this corruptible shall have put on in corruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, ‘Death is swallowed up in victory’” (1 Corinthians 15:54). Know this; Jesus is the way the truth and the life, with His life in us God cannot deny us. Without His life in us God considers us as walking dead people. Jesus said “Let the dead bury the dead” (Matthew 8:22).

God's Connected Line of Communication

(Definition): The Holy Spirit – The Holy Spirit is God in His entirety. He cannot be described, but He can be experienced when we receive Him.

Now since the beginning of the reconciliation process with God, there is a necessity of communication; and before we get started with the stories in this book we would like to first expose something about our lifeline to Yahweh Himself. This lifeline is your personal prayer with God—the Lord's Prayer. This prayer is our direct national and individual hotline of communication with almighty YAHWEH Himself. Every nation needs this prayer established in its structure and its population, it is known as the daily sacrifice, if it is removed by men in positions of authority then those nations have been infiltrated by members of the demonic realm which desire to divide and destroy our relationship God and cause dissention among men.

It has been dismissed as being biased, as a Christian prayer, but the prayer itself has no direct mention or affiliation with any religion, as it does not name Jesus, Mohammed, Buddha, or any other religious leader. It is directed only towards God the Father, and it is a prayer that no one can find within it any reason to doubt Yahweh's love or mindfulness for the entire human race.

The purpose of the Lord's Prayer is for us to acknowledge God daily as the person who we are accountable to, and the only one who is able, and willing to forgive, and supply us.

It is His prayer given to us that we would identify with Him as our Father and that it would draw His attention to our needs, which can apply to all peoples and nations. Yahweh wants us to look at this prayer differently with His desire for us, so let's look and see if the Lord's Prayer is indeed for all mankind or not.

"Our Father which art in heaven." This is the first line in the Lord's Prayer. Would not every human being like to identify with the Creator as a father? This first prayer line also states, "which art in heaven." Well, if Heaven is the place where God dwells, how could we possibly reject this statement? Where else does He live?

“Hallowed be Thy name.” Would it not be appropriate for the One who created us to be holy, pure, and loving? And shouldn't His name be also? So why would we want to reject this? Is there any indication that it belongs to any one religion?

“Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.” This prayer line is one of the reasons why Satan wants to eliminate this entire prayer because God's will is for us to be redeemed and that none be lost. It is also one of the most powerful statements that every single human being on Earth should speak from their heart because, when we request this, it opens up a multitude of doors that allow God to release His power and authority in our personal lives and in our nations.

We cannot emphasize the importance of this prayer line. When we recite the Lord's Prayer with our love for the Father in this way, we acknowledge that we need Yahweh and His righteousness, and we put Satan and his works on the back burner.

“Give us this day our daily bread.” This asking of the Creator for all things to nourish and supply us can't possibly hurt, can it? WE need His help.

“And forgive us our debts [sins and transgressions] AS we forgive our debtors.” We all need to be forgiven of our sins. We also need to forgive, so that there's well-being and healing for our relationships and communities.

Otherwise, without forgiveness we have a tendency to get trapped in downward, emotional cycles of guilt, resentment, bitterness, and hate, which are Satan's number-one tools that he uses against mankind. These cycles lead to our destruction and contribute to the spiritual destruction of those around us.

This prayer line contains one of the smallest, most important words in the entire Bible that reflects on our entering the Kingdom of Heaven, (God's Paradise) for eternity, which is the two-letter word “AS.” Dear reader, this means that our salvation is conditional. Just because Jesus died on the cross does not mean that we get an unconditional ticket into Paradise.

This truth is revealed when we say the Lord's Prayer, which is another reason why Satan does not want us to pray in this way dear reader, (this is one of the four words)... “AS”. “For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses” (Matthew 6:14-15).

“And lead us not into temptation” Tempting humans is the number one thing on Satan’s to do list. In this prayer line we are asking God to help us.

“But deliver us from evil.” No matter who we are; from birth we start to sin this is the hold our spiritual enemy has on us, from this we need to be saved. “He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning, for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.” (1st John 3: 8)

This line also describes our need for the Father’s wisdom to discern evil, which will lead to our destruction. When we use God as our need and source for truth, He will reveal that which we need to be delivered from. But Satan does not want us to receive this discernment, whereby he can confuse us with what is good or evil, “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness” (Isaiah 5:20a).

The devil’s plan to destroy mankind is the only agenda that will benefit from making leaders remove the Lords’ prayer from schools, from the nation which will leave that nation without protection. Question? How stupid are you people to vote men in place that hate you, that work for Satan’s kingdoms. Men that usher in the stupid teachings (evolution). You don’t look like a monkey. Why pretend to be one.

“For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.”

What do fathers do? They acknowledge the needs of their children. Let’s keep the Lord’s Prayer in our institutions. Let’s keep the Lord’s Prayer in our hearts and homes. This prayer is an expression of our love and need for Him, and thus He is willing to respond on our behalf. Yahweh, our Creator, wants to be our Father. Let’s help Him dispense His Spirit, which is love.

Who Is Aart Wulphert Beekman?

So, who is this guy Aart? Well, first and foremost Aart is a living son of the living God, Yahweh. “But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name” (John 1:12). Aart is also a king because it is for kings to know. “It is the glory of God to conceal a thing; but the honour of kings is to search out a matter” (Proverbs 25:2). He is also a warrior. “For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind” (2 Timothy 1:7). “Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Hebrews 4:16).

But initially Aart was just a guy who happened to be available and who lived an orchestrated life full of God’s grace so that this book you are reading could be written. It’s interesting that Mark Twain said that there are two most important days in a person’s life. The first, he said, is when a person is born—but the truth from God’s perspective, that day is when a person is reborn in the Holy spirit, allowed to enter the Family of God, and receives the gift of everlasting life—and the second most important day, Mark Twain said, is when that person finds out why.

In Aart’s case, the second most important day was when Yahweh God said to him, “Aart, I want you to write the story of your life, and in it you will glorify Me.”

We’ve all heard the song “Amazing Grace,” yes? Well, these stories are also about amazing grace. Two key phrases in this song, however, are “I once was lost, but now am found. Was blind, but now I see.” But what does it mean to be lost, and what does it mean to be blind?

Well, here was a poor fellow, John Newton, the author of the song, in the slave-trading business, and he was a product of his environment in believing that slaving was acceptable, that is, until he turned to God because of a near-death experience.

What constitutes being lost is when we have been blinded by certain environments and teachings and traditions that have been injected into mankind by demons in the beginning, then some altered or changed by the god of this world Satan, to align with his agenda, which is to cause us to act contrary to God’s will—and in this blindness we are lost human beings. It is because the truth we have accepted is defiled and tainted with lies.

You will come to realize the depth of this condition in all humanity as you read about the contradictions in the limited understanding of people especially of those in power. (They are the easiest influenced by Satan.)

We usually continue on in our lost condition until there is a devastating occurrence, such as a traumatic, near-death experience, which gives us a wakeup call, and in this wakeup call we realize that we need to be changed. This is a step toward understanding that we are more than what we pretend to be.

God's invitation for us to be released from the bondage of the destroyer and to be in a relationship with Him is realized in a new clear way.

John Newton is a case point, but in reality every human being is lost and separated from God until we accept Him. I AM STANDING AT THE DOOR KNOCKING: IF ANY PERSON HEAR MY VOICE; AND OPEN THE DOOR, I WILL SUP WITH THEM AND HE WITH ME. Revelation 3:20

State of the Aart (S.O.T.A.) has been written for you and for your edification with the understanding that our God, our Father, loves you and wants you to know who you are now, and also who you will be in His Kingdom. But if you don't know the Lord, then you are as Aart was, dear reader. He, as well as most everyone else on the planet, didn't know that he needed to be saved and transformed into the image of God until after his transformation. It was initiated by the infusion of God's Holy Spirit into his human spirit as yours will be, and you will also see in this transformation that you needed to be saved. After this infusion we develop an attitude of gratitude.

(Definition): Human Carnality (which is defined by God as "flesh") – Carnality is the exercising of our natural, fleshly state, which at present is being aided by our soul which is influenced by Satan and the demonic realm, as spoken of in the Bible, a condition in which there can be no spiritual union with God. This condition cannot please Him. It is a condition that can't be altered and is infiltrated and strongly influenced by demonic spiritual forces on a continuous daily bases from birth to the grave, and we are totally unaware of its presence. We are not allowed to enter paradise in this condition, as there can be no evil in God's dwelling place. Essentially, unless we are in the process of being transformed into a spiritual condition, a new life, the Father cannot identify with our human carnality. It is enmity with the Holy Spirit and cannot please Him. This is all of us; everyone - no exceptions!

“For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So, then they that are in the flesh cannot please God” (Romans 8:6-8).

The Authority of the Author

Having a very personal relationship with our creator is a curious thing for many. Over the years Aart has been asked if he thought he was an authority on God.

His reply? “No one can truly be an authority on God, but in order to know God, one must be an authority on, and be honest with himself enough to willingly admit his own short comings. Without this attitude of gratitude, and of humility, there can be no transformation by God into the perfection He has predestined for us in Christ Jesus!” (please read Philippians 2:5-11 and Rom 12:2).

The only authority any one of us has to speak on the profound things of God is ours solely upon our experience of walking in an intimate relationship with Him.

The Epitome of Carnality

Aart was born in the Year of the Tiger (1950) in the small village of Sunga Sunga in Borneo, where he lived with his family for less than a year in a Shell oil camp within the jungle. His father, an engineer, was one of the camp's top honchos at age thirty, and he did very well there after the war. He made excellent wages, none of which he had to spend, as everything was provided for them in the camp, so the money just went directly into a bank account in Holland, where they were from. Aart's mother also had access to five servants and a tennis court at the camp; she was quite spoiled then.

The camp owned by shell oil, a Dutch oil company was well protected, it had to be, the maximum of all carnal acts was being practiced in the Indonesian islands then: CANNABOLISM The Solomon Islands in particular had a reputation, which was reflected in a warning given by the American military during the Second World War, "If you crash, do not approach the natives."

The natives in Borneo were head hunters labeled as wild men who could shrink a human head and stick it on a pole, which would then be planted on the beaches as a warning. The Japanese being very superstitious (also a condition of carnality) avoided them believing that if you lose your head you lose your soul, but then the Japanese were equally influenced by the devil, doing other carnal evil acts, as were the Germans. The human soulish condition is always susceptible to Satan's guidance through traditions; and mind control. The unregenerated mind belongs to Lucifer now known as Satan. When human weaknesses dominate persons and even a nation. (greed, lust for power, bitterness, hatred, arrogance all which are the fruit of the carnal condition which is our natural state from birth and this condition evolves from the knowledge of the tree of good and evil.) (One Mans' evil is another man's good.) So, what is the reality with this truth? This is it, the reason why you are going to die.

It started with the evil that is found in the highest created person next to God Himself who was named Lucifer. (Thou was perfect in thy ways from the day that thou was created, till iniquity was found in thee.) EZEKIEL 28

The number one principle of the Heavens is that no evil can exist there, Satan's hatred for God started when he thought that he could sit on the throne of the most high God as God, he was able to convince a third of the angels of that lie, his now demons and the evil that became their character were then cast out of paradise and sent down to the earth which was necessary as part of God's plan to destroy the devil and the evil in him. He couldn't destroy any one after he gave them eternal life could he?

With the ungodly fallen angels however, God needed a different plan of action. Face it. What would you do if you had billions of fallen angels; now reduced to demons, (God could do that he could change their status from angels to hideous demons), living on your front yard.

Now concerning God's creation of Man Kind and the devil being able separate us from the Most High God; to dominate us through our minds and become our hidden god, one principal was put in place. Satan you cannot be responsible for killing a SINLESS MAN.

If the devil caused the death of a SINLESS MAN., then God had legal ground to destroy him. Pay very, very close attention to this truth, dear reader! When Jesus cried out from the cross "IT IS FINISHED!" The destruction of Satan was certified, and now our salvation is able to be manifest. (made real and visible)

What made everything finished?

(THEN ENTERED SATAN INTO JU'DAS BEING OF THE NUMBER OF THE TWELVE) Luke 22:3

And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him unto them. (Luke 22:4)

People pay very close attention to this truth.

Because Satan is responsible for the betrayal of Jesus the Son of God. And his death. Satan is now on death row. All humans have the opportunity now to receive Divine authority to overcome the power of the devil.

He was given a time to live and exercise the evil in himself; while God you and I usher as many into paradise as are willing to receive his spirit. Jesus says IM KNOCKING ON YOUR DOOR. God wills that none be lost.

BUT SATAN COMES WITH GREAT WRATH BECAUSE HE KNOWS HIS TIME IS SHORT.

But remember this people; God raised Jesus from the dead.

Now Yahweh God our father can destroy Satan the devil and his demon army after this event took place, and it can be said 'It is finished and all mankind can be redeemed to our original position and even beyond as members of the eternal family of God as Sons. That's pretty cool!

Time is very short, just look at the world affairs and the demons behind the scenes controlling the Idiots destroying everything they touch

Satan comes to kill steal and destroy...

"...for if you are living according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the deeds of the body, you will live." (Rom 8:13) Satan wants all of us to ignore God's righteousness and live by our carnal unregenerated human fleshly condition.

Everyone who commits sin {transgressions} is of the devil for the devil sinned from the beginning FOR THS PURPOSE THE SON OF GOD WAS MANIFESTED { MADE VISIBLE } THAT HE MIGHT DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL ! (1 John 3-8)

So we belong to Satan until we get saved, and receive God's authority over him; then we belong to God; This is the simple truth. So why is everything so complicated? The unsaved humans who still belong to the devil spread foolish teachings and polluted understandings, like applying evolution to mankind. You see the devil does not I repeat does not want you to have any kind of authority over him, this is why he had Jesus put to death.

The God of this world is come but he has nothing in JESUS.

And there was war in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon (Satan )fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the devil, and Satan which DECEIVETH THE WHOLE WORLD: he was cast out into the world and his angels were cast out with him.(Revelation 12: 7-8-9)

Back to Borneo:

As Satan would have it at that time in Borneo and this part of the world: cannibalism was obviously evil and feared yet still practiced. In human societies from the beginning and even now, Satan is trying to de throne God as the most high by proving His creation faulty. His hatred for God is reflected in how he influences the human race to commit extreme evil ugly acts own self-destruction. He comes to kill, steal, and destroy.

We are going to give another more modern-day example of Satan's grip on the human race and its carnal misguided attitude. Aart watched the History Channel one day, and this program may have been sponsored by the National Geographic Society, but whatever the case this tradition was actually filmed.

Somewhere in India, where there are many, many, many gods, a particular tribe of people had accepted a belief handed down for generations and is still being practiced today. Their belief is that, in order for an individual who had passed away to be able to enter into a different world or the afterlife, their body had to be dug up from the ground after a period of six months or so, and the living members of that tribe had to partake and (eew... yuck! ...it breaks our heart to say this) but they had to actually eat a piece of the dead body. Now as this was filmed, the look on a young woman's face after partaking of this absolutely disgusting tradition could only draw the utmost of compassion.

Our question is—where did this tradition come from? You see, Satan is laughing, absolutely laughing at the ridiculous gullibility of the mind of man, that he can cause a portion of the human race to do this. Since the beginning of mankind's fall from its original, spiritual condition, Satan's evil agenda has been implemented into tribal societies throughout the ages, through the human mind, right up till today, where humans even condone human sacrifice.in many forms like that of abortion and child mutilation. HOW SICK ARE WE????

But even though the human race has fallen, God has not given up on us. He has a plan, and we are all redeemed and invited to be in the Family of God as a new creation. This is true even of those humans that have committed the most heinous of atrocities—and to prove that His mercy extends to all, we will tell you the story of the two brothers who searched for the wild men of Borneo.

It was during the 1970s, and the Blair brothers were on a ten-year expedition through the Indonesian islands to explore and document their terrain and culture. Then at one point, the brothers decided to search for a lost tribe called the Punan Dyak tribe, which was rumoured to have gone extinct.

So the two of them found a guide, perhaps a distant relative, and embarked with an expedition of locals into Borneo's interior, and after an incredibly lengthy journey through the jungle they finally found the tribe, who they discovered, were a people living in righteousness and peace and love.

Later on while staying with them, one of the brothers inquired as to who their god was during a meal, at which point the chief had jumped up and emphatically stated, "There is only one God, and that is Jesus"—and this is so profound because they used to be one of the most feared races on the planet, but God sent His word to them, which is Christ (as He is the way, the truth, and the life), and they received Him. The epitome of carnality had been overthrown by the love of God.

When God works, He transforms the heart by His Spirit within each individual, producing His love, and this greatest of gifts can be received by even the greatest of sinners. This is the epitome of the human condition, when it has been transformed from the carnal by God's Spirit, His power, His will, and authority, It is a beautiful thing.

"Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now" (Romans 8:21-22).

(Definition): Spirit – For our purposes here, spirit is the essence of all living things, and all things are because of the will of God.

"For by Him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him" (Colossians 1:16).

God distributes His Spirit accordingly, and as far as the human condition is concerned, He dispenses His Spirit through salvation according to how much a person is willing to receive it—and this is a mystery—how much a person is able to receive depends on how much they are willing to become less.

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ” (Philippians 3:8). “He must increase, but I must decrease” (John 3:30).

The less we become the more He is able to fill us with Himself, known as the Holy Spirit, who comforts us and gives us the power to overcome. This is the principle of spiritual maturity. The ultimate goal for a human being is that God would glorify Himself in that person by His Spirit and for them to become as He is.

So that completes one of our definitions for spirit, but we have two more,

And a spirit is also a living entity that has an ordained purpose each after their own kind (GENESIS 1) but it should be understood that a spirit being is also personable, and that the Father, Yahweh, who is pure spirit and prevails over all things, is a person, as is Yeshua, the Son of God, as is the Holy Spirit.

“But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, which proceeds from the Father, He shall testify of Me” (John 15:26).

The Spirit of God produces the fruit of the Spirit, which is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance (Galatians 5:22-23), which all contribute to our selflessness. God’s Spirit is life.

Now our third definition of spirit is a state of consciousness that promotes an attitude, which can result in positive action or negative action.

“Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of” (Luke 9:55b)—and this attitude, as well as our understanding, needs to be transformed and to be holy in order for us to manifest God’s Spirit, which is total love. This holy love is perfect in all ways.

Demon spirits are void of love; but they are incredibly good liars and manipulators they can even put good thoughts in a persons' mind conditioning the human mind to accepting the counterfeit voice as being the voice of the persons own consciousness or the voice of the most high God.

The definition of spirit found in most dictionaries does not accurately identify the spiritual warfare that is in effect around and within us right now as the Bible does. Receiving God's Spirit awakens us to an entirely different realm of understanding, and it is needed for us to become overcomers in our lives, yet His Spirit is often the least thing identified with. Once we receive it, however, Yahweh's Holy Spirit becomes the most effectual and influential power within our daily walk because His Spirit is sovereign over all things.

This is our present dilemma—our human existence is alienated from God's spirit from our birth and needs to be reconciliated with Him.

Therefore, the fall has left us in a spiritual dead-zone; the result of our fallen human nature is that we walk the Earth spiritually dead. Jesus said, "Follow Me; and let the dead bury their dead" (Matthew 8:22) because all humans are spiritually dead without the Spirit of God, which renews us and gives us life, and ultimately eternal life.

"Jesus answered, 'Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit'" (John 3:5-6). WE NEED TO BE SAVED!

Aart with Two 'A's

After spending five years in Borneo, Aart's family decided to immigrate to Canada, but before they did, they first went back to Holland. Jan, Aart's father, was fairly well-off after Borneo, but you couldn't bring much money into Canada at that time, only two hundred dollars. However, you could take your furniture with you.

So Aart's parents shipped all their furniture that they bought to Canada by boat and then by train, which took eight to ten months to arrive, and once they received it and sold most of the stuff that they had purchased in Holland the Beekman family became well-off in Canada too.

They had one hard year in Calgary, but when things got sold they moved to Edmonton (Alberta's capital city). Being an engineer, Jan found work with very good wages there right away, and their lives commenced as Canadians. In 1955 Aart started Grade 1 as a five-year-old in school.

It was harsh for Aart to walk back and forth to his school, which was a kilometer away, with his brother four times a day. Back then, they didn't have a lunchroom, so you had to go home and then come back again—and being the king of the dawdlers, Aart was always catching it one way or another for being late, which caused teacher retaliation and put him on his teachers' bad side, oh boy.

At one point, Aart's teacher even started to scream at him when he continued spelling his name with two 'A's after she repeatedly scolded him for doing so, claiming it was wrong and he was being a bad boy, but he just went right on doing it since he knew he was spelling it correctly.

Soon in response to this, the frustrated teacher sent Aart home with a note declaring his continuous rebellious behavior in this matter, and demanded a meeting at the school. (big, big mistake.)

(Although this extra 'A' in Aart's name was easily dismissed by his teacher way back in 1955, there is one astonishing fact about it, dear reader, in that it is part of God's plan for this book to be written and with it His invitation here and how you can become a member of the body of Christ our saviour—because the 'A' stands for 'All.'(every human being can enjoy redemption immediately.) Dear reader the declaration that was established when Jesus died on the cross for us that day is this (ALL ARE REDEEMED TODAY)

You're probably wondering what happened to that note little Aart was sent home with for his parents. At that time, Aart's mama couldn't read English very well and had to wait for Aart's dad to come home to read it to her—and once he did she didn't sleep very well that night. She was too busy winding up her wrath, which she unloaded the next day. Aart wouldn't have wanted to be in that teacher's place. You don't tell a Dutch war survivor suffering from migraines that her son is stupid and that he can't spell his name right, a name that he inherited from his Grandfather Aart Wulphert.

Footnote: When writing this book, Aart's mama was in her one-hundredth year. At the time she was blind, but you still didn't mess with Aart's mama. She just recently passed away in 2018 (November 26, 1918–July 10, 2018).

Dear reader, a hundred years is nothing in eternity, but it is everything concerning your entrance into eternity right now. There is no reincarnation. This is our only opportunity to receive the life of God within us that we may enter the Kingdom—and this is because with His life in us He cannot deny Himself.

Aart's mother knew the Lord, and we are assured that she has gained entrance to the Kingdom of Heaven, but we don't know what her reward will be. "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire" (1 Corinthians 3:11-15).

And the first commandment, which is to love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, is the relevant factor for us to obtain any kind of reward at all. (You might not understand what this means until after you receive the Spirit of God and He opens up your spiritual mind, dear reader, but keep reading, and we guarantee that your spiritual understanding will be opened more as you get to know Jesus) "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen” (Hebrews 11:1).
